

Author Erin Fry is coming to your school!

Erin Fry, young adult author and middle school teacher, will be visiting your school soon to discuss her writing process and her books.

If you'd like to purchase a copy of any of her books to have autographed, please return this form to your librarian along with your payment. Books are also available on Amazon.com.

In UNDERCOVER CHEFS (2018, ages 8-12), three unlikely friends are lured by the promise of a cupcake contest to an unusual classroom on campus. As they share a love for cooking, the pressures of the contest start to boil over. They must figure out a way to salvage their cupcakes, save the culinary classroom from being demolished, and protect their secrets before the judges cast their final votes.

In LOSING IT (2012, ages 10-up), thirteen-year-old Bennett is tired of being the “fat kid.” When his father’s stroke scares him into a search for a life without XXL t-shirts and French fries, he discovers that running may be just the escape he needs.

In SECRETS OF THE BOOK (2014, ages 9-12), 6th-grader Spencer Lemon has no idea why he was chosen to guard Pandora’s Book, a book that contains famous dead people—who can be brought back to life. Spencer and his autistic best friend, Gregor, soon realize it’s up to them to not only protect the book from others who wish to use its powers for evil, but quite possibly save the world.
